The dining area is the first room encountered and boasts a dual aspect with double height window to the front, flooding the area with natural light.

A triple aspect room with feature arrow slit windows with exposed stone surrounds simply add to the timeless beauty.

Linking the two main areas of the barn, originally two separate barns, is the garden room. Probably the lightest room in the house and boasting full length windows on three sides as well as French doors that open to the rear.

A cosy room, ideal for intimate evening drinks with splendid views over the landscaped gardens. Shallow stone steps lead down to the lounge that offers a larger, more formal reception room with imposing feature fireplace with inset wood burner and ornate timber mantle over. French doors open on two sides, one to the rear garden and one to the driveway.

Further accommodation to the Easterly wing include a fourth double bedroom, a study/fifth bedroom plus a ground floor shower room with Travertine stone tiling within.

To the first floor there is a light and airy galleried landing, making the most of the feature full length window to the front. Here is where one can truly appreciate the exposed elm beams to the ceiling that are on show in all their splendour.

The three main bedrooms can be accessed off this landing with the principal enjoying a vaulted ceiling, fitted wardrobes along one wall as well as en-suite facilities. There is a separate family bathroom with 4 piece suite within.

STEP OUTSIDE

To the front of the barn is a gated courtyard accessed only by one other property, another converted barn. The central courtyard in turn leads to the block paved parking for this property, allowing parking for 3/4 cars comfortably.

The rear garden is where this wonderful home truly comes to life. Enjoying a southerly aspect, the garden is ideal for relaxing and entertaining friends or family. The landscaped garden boasts a paved patio area directly adjoining the house which in turn opens out to an expanse of lawn with mature shrub, flower and tree borders, providing year round colour and a high degree of privacy.

To the far end of the garden there is a vegetable plot, perfect for the green fingered amongst us. There is a timber garden shed and further seating areas. In total, the grounds extend to approximately 1/3 of an acre a perfect size for most, large enough to enjoy without being too demanding of maintenance.
