109 WOOLPITCH WOOD

Chepstow, Monmouthshire NP16 6DR

Three bed semi detached
Ideal property for a professional couple or investment
Private parking under a carport

Located within a popular residential area known as Bayfields in the historic market town of Chepstow, this three-bed, semi-detached house is a modern home offering great accommodation situated in a quiet part of this development, overlooking fields and tucked away from the main roads.

Still all within walking distance to Chepstow Community Hospital and local schools, this residence provides convenient access to the town centre and major road routes to Bristol, Newport, and Cardiff.

The modern estate combines urban amenities with the allure of the surrounding countryside, with a local children's park within walking distance.

This three-bedroom, semi-detached property is situated in a private location on the edge of the development with direct pathway access to woodland walks, yet close to the town and easy access to the M4 and M5 motorways.
