STEP INSIDE

This property is an absolute delight to showcase and is one of my favourites, brimming with characterful features such as exposed beams and flagstone flooring that enhance each room. As you walk down the path, the charming solid front door provides direct access into the main sitting area, which has been tastefully decorated. This inviting space includes a wonderful log burner, beautiful wooden flooring, and elegant stairs leading to the first floor.

As you explore further, the stunning flagstone flooring catches your eye, a fantastic feature that runs throughout the ground floor. The kitchen serves as a true family hub, offering ample space for a large breakfast table and a dresser. It boasts bespoke fitted wall displays and cupboards tailored to the alcove beside the extra-large cream Aga. This lovely traditional wooden kitchen is complete granite worktops, showcasing the high quality of materials sourced for the home.

Adjacent to the kitchen is a versatile room currently used as a library, but it could easily serve as a family room or formal dining room. This room also features a small cellar beneath, which is not currently in use but offers excellent storage options if needed. French doors lead from this space to a quaint courtyard seating area at the back, providing a delightful spot to relax and enjoy the late afternoon sun.

On the ground floor, you'll find a convenient WC featuring a period high wall cistern, adding a touch of character to this essential space. Also off the main hall is a useful larder/pantry.

There is also a very sizable utility room just off the inner hall, which provides easy access to the rear courtyard patio.

Additionally, you will discover a cosy snug room, perfect for relaxing or entertaining guests, completing the appeal of this welcoming ground floor layout.

The sitting room and snug also benefit from window seats and shutters.

As you make your way up the original staircase with its sweeping handrail, you'll find yourself led to the guest room at the front of the house.

Each bedroom on this floor is generously sized, providing a comfortable retreat. In addition to the guest room, there is another spacious bedroom and a family bathroom.

Continuing along an impressive landing with wooden beams on one side and exposed stone walling on the other, with beautiful stained glass panel and window, you will arrive at the principal bedroom suite. This tranquil oasis comes complete with an ensuite wet room, a rare feature for a period home, offering both convenience and a touch of luxury.

On the second floor, you will discover three generously sized rooms that offer versatile options for use - whether as additional bedrooms, a home office, or a cosy den.

Complementing these spaces is a well-appointed bathroom for added convenience to this floor.

STEP OUTSIDE

This truly exceptional property features a beautifully landscaped garden, complete with new pathways that meander through serene seating areas, perfect for relaxation.
